

Guidelines for Exhibiting

Here are a few guidelines and points that might be of help when exhibiting. Always read the schedule carefully including page 2.

- All exhibits to have been made / photographed by the Exhibitor
- Exhibits MUST NOT have been shown at Bingley Show previously
- Exhibits must be staged by 8.45am and CANNOT be collected until 4.30pm
- Where a label is supplied it should be attached to the exhibit but it does not need to be on the front of the exhibit - it is for the steward's use only.
- Exhibits should only be marked with the label supplied (No names, etc.)

HEMECRAFT

The judge will be looking at...

- External Appearance (colour, shape, uniformity, no cooling tray marks on top)
- Internal Condition (depth of crust, texture, distribution of ingredients)
- Flavour
- There are some recipes that should be presented in a particular way e.g. Victoria Sandwich Cake sandwiched together with raspberry jam only and sprinkled on top with caster sugar

PRESERVES

The judge will be looking for...

- Preserves with true flavour and correct consistency
- Jars made of clear glass with no visible commercial / trade marks
- Jars and cover should be suitable for the preservation of the contents
- Jars should be clean and unblemished
- Labels stating contents, day, month and year of making
- The seal is very important for preserves and can be achieved with a twist top only, or a wax disc covered with cellophane when cooled
- Lemon Curd should always be covered with a 'breathing top' a wax disc and a cellophane top

CRAFTS

- Items should be clean
- The design should be suitable for its intended purpose
- Stitch work should be even
- Consideration should be given to the presentation of your entry e.g. framed items may benefit by being displayed so they are not flat on the table i.e. with an empty margarine carton underneath

PHOTOGRAPHY

The judge will be looking for a photo with...

- Eye appeal
- Colour
- Perspective
- Balance and composition
- Photographs may be mounted if wished – maximum size including mount 8"x6"

200g (7oz) 70% - 85% dark chocolate, finely chopped sea salt (optional)
½ teaspoon bicarbonate of soda 40g (1 ½ oz) rye flour
100g (3 ½ oz) light brown sugar 2 large eggs (at room temp)
25g (1oz) unsalted butter plus extra to grease ½ tsp vanilla extract

- Gently melt the chocolate and butter together in a heatproof bowl set over a pan of barely simmering water. Remove and set aside to cool for 10 mins.
- With an electric whisk, combine the eggs and sugar in a large bowl until pale and mousse-like, about 5 mins. Fold in the melted chocolate mixture along with the vanilla.
- Mix in the flour and bicarbonate of soda. Cover and chill in the fridge for 30 mins.
- Preheat the oven to 180°C (160°C fan), gas mark 4. Grease and line two baking sheets with baking parchment. Scoop the dough into 10 mounds, spaced well apart on the baking sheets (each cookie will be about 2 tbsp). Wet your hands with cold water, and then roll the dough into balls, squashing slightly down. Sprinkle with a pinch of sea salt flakes if you like.
- Bake the cookies for 12-15 mins until slightly puffed and firm around the edges – the tops should crack a little. Allow to cool for 15 mins on the baking sheets before carefully transferring to wire racks to cool completely.

Handwriting for Class 47 (Junior Section - 7 to 11 years)

The Soldier, by Rupert Brooke

If I should die, think only this of me:
That there's some corner of a foreign field
That is forever England. There shall be
In that rich earth a richer dust concealed;
A dust whom England bore, shaped, made aware,
Gave, once, her flowers to love, her ways to roam,
A body of England's, breathing English air,
Washed by the rivers, blest by the suns of home.
And think, this heart, all evil shed away,
A pulse in the eternal mind, no less
Gives somewhere back the thoughts by England given;
Her sights and sounds; dreams happy as her day;
And laughter, learnt of friends; and gentleness,
In hearts at peace, under an English heaven.
